KeepsakeQuilting.com

Dear Friends,

Welcome to our latest Keepsake Quilting catalog! How do we decide what to include in the catalog, you may ask. Well, it's not easy! There are some fabulously talented pattern and fabric designers out there coming out with all kinds of new delights for quilters. We get to see many of those offerings at Quilt Market, a quilting trade show that is held twice a year at various locations. See pages 16 and 17 for just a sampling of what we brought back from Salt Lake City this May.

While Quilt Market is a great place to find new products, it's certainly not the only place. We're on the search all year long and are constantly in touch with our sister magazine editors from Love of Quilting, Quiltmaker and McCall's, and with our vendors, asking them "what's new?" Some of those vendors have been working with us for so long, they now ask us what you, our customers, would like to see. One of the ways you can tell us is by uploading pictures of your projects to social media and tagging them with #myKQ. We'll be on the lookout for these mentions and not only will we take note of the types of fabrics and quilt projects you love, but we'll share those proud pictures on our social media and website. We value your input, because nothing pleases us more than to fill our catalog with things that will make you happy. In the end, as we always remind ourselves, it's all about you, because you're the reason that we've been in business for 30 years.

Piecefully yours,

All your friends at Keepsake Quilting™
